Aloha nui loa from RSCDS Hawaii !

We are pleased to announce our Biennial weekend of SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCING in HAWAII. We invite you to join us in Honolulu for an event-filled weekend of dance lessons, social dances and a ceilidh, with live music for all dancing provided by The Humuhumunukunukuapua'a and Strathspey Society Band. We begin on Friday evening, February 14th, 2020, with light supper and a “meet-and-greet” social dance.

Instructional dance classes are held Saturday and Sunday, and the semi-formal dance is on Saturday. Most meals are provided.

It's not too early to start planning ... thinking about flight reservations and hotels for this popular time of year in Hawaii.

~ Come Join Us!

Guest Instructor Rachel Pusey

Rachel's entry into dancing was through social barn dances in her teens. At university she leveled up to English country dancing, and reluctantly crossed the border into Scottish when she couldn't find an ECD group close enough to home in Oxford. It turned out well, though, and she spent several fun years dancing with a student group there. After relocating to St Louis she was able to dance both English and Scottish, but not nearly often enough, and so fell into teaching and found that she rather enjoyed it. A move to Seattle provided the opportunity for RSCDS teacher training and several years running a class in the University district. Rachel moved south with her husband, Dilip, in 2015 and now lives in Sunnyvale, CA where they are happily able to fill their diary with dancing.

The Humuhumunukunukuapua'a and Strathspey Society Band

Bruce Herbold, Patti Cobb & David Newitt were at a Scottish Dance Week on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, when they started to play together. Finding like-minded fiddler Heather MacKay and adopting the state fish of Hawaii as their mascot, the Humus were born. "As far as we know, we are the world's best Hawaiian-themed Scottish music band." They also play for Ceilidh dancing, English country dance and Ceilidhs, weddings and other parties.

They've played for the Hawaii branch's Aloha Winter Weekend workshops since 2007, and honor us to return to play and teach in 2020. They love snorkeling, hiking, doing puzzles...and they're a heck of a lot of fun to dance to! The Humus often play with a fifth member or with a special guest. This year they will be joined by fiddler Betsy St. Aubin.

Practicalities:

We recommend the Queen Kapiolani Hotel or other hotels in the east end of Waikiki, or BandBs in the Honolulu/Manoa area. Once you have made your lodging reservations, please let us know where you will be staying, and also whether you will be renting a car.

Once you have registered, we will give you further information about transportation options to the Friday night and Sunday night social events. All other events are within walking distance of the Queen Kapiolani Hotel.

To Register, complete the form below (the form is fillable). Email or mail to MLindsay@hawaii.rr.com. Make checks payable to "RSCDS Hawaii". Registration deadline is January 15th, 2020.
